FLSA: Non-Exempt (hourly)

REVISED: 03/24/2016

REPORTS TO: Adoption Supervisor

SUPERVISES: None

Position Summary:

Provides an exceptional customer service experience for all patrons of The Animal Foundation (TAF). Assists in finding quality, caring homes for adoption animals based upon information obtained through discussion and interview of potential adopters. This position will require rotation between main campus, offsite events and other offsite adoption centers that exist, as required.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Assists in the day-to-day operation of the Adoption Department. Includes answering the telephones, inputting animal data into computer and such other clerical duties as may be assigned.
- Maintains adoption areas in a clean, neat and orderly fashion at all times.
- Meets and greets visitors and/or customers in a courteous and professional manner.
- Directs and accompanies prospective adopters to all areas.
- Interviews prospective adopters to match the appropriate animal to the adopter(s) and educates them on proper care of that species in general.
- Process adoptions in the Chameleon system.
- Explains animal return and refund policy while processing each adoption.
- Maintains all adoption records and paperwork in neat orderly fashion.
- Moves adopted unaltered animals to the clinic.
- Collects adoptions fees, issues receipts for the collection of fees and maintains records of adoption sales transactions.
- Informs customers of medical treatment the animals have received: i.e., shots, deworming, spay or neuter surgery, etc. and educates them on necessary future veterinary care.
- Describes the foundation's policy on microchipping, vaccinations, spay and neuter, and the local government spay and neuter law.
- Maintains a professional appearance at all times.
- Composes correspondence and other documents; performs clerical duties to support the operations of the department(s).
- Provides information and assistance to internal and external customers as required.
- Contributes to the efficiency and effectiveness of the department's service to its customers by offering suggestions and participating as an active team member.
- Prepares food and feeds animals regularly. Assures animals have water at all times.
- Properly cleans and disinfects all kennels and adoption areas throughout the hours of operation in adoption centers when no animal care attendants are on duty.
- Provides constant monitoring and basic medical care as directed by a veterinary care professional or management.
- Insures that all necessary forms, rabies and license tags, brochures and information packets are available and in adequate supply.
